

the bill, the amendment also, by addressing any or all abortion procedures, broadens the prohibition in the bill.

"One of the basic lines of precedent under clause 7 of rule 16, the germaneness rule, holds that a proposition addressing a specific subject may not be amended by a proposition more general in nature. As noted in section 798f of the House Rules and Manual, this principle applies even when both propositions address a common topic.

"Thus, on March 23, 1960, the Chair held that an amendment to criminalize the obstruction of any court order was not germane to a bill to criminalize only the obstruction of court orders relating to the desegregation of public schools.

"On the reasoning reflected in this line of precedent, the Chair holds that the amendment proposed in the motion to recommit is not germane to the bill. Accordingly, the point of order is sustained and the motion to recommit is not in order."

Mr. HOYER appealed the ruling of the Chair.

The question being,

Will the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?

Mr. CANADY moved to lay the appeal on the table.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House lay on the table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MCINNIS, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. HOYER demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

NOT VOTING—2

Kaptur Oxley

So the motion to lay on the table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the motion to lay on the table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 2, line 9, insert after the words "or injury", the following: "including a life endangering physical condition caused by or arising from the pregnancy itself, or to avert serious adverse longterm physical health consequences to the mother".

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MCINNIS, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to the motion to recommit with instructions, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas 149
negative { Nays 282
